

Craig Sawin

Craig Sawin joined Medley Global Advisors LLC with 27 years of diverse executive and financial experience. He served as CEO of Harcourt General's Corporate and Professional Services Group, and later led the start up of the consulting firm Novations Group Inc. During Mr. Sawin's tenure at Harcourt General he traveled extensively throughout the world and led the global expansion of its subsidiary, Drake Beam Morin. Prior to that, as Harcourt's Corporate VP of Planning and Analysis, he participated in more than 30 mergers and acquisitions and led the budgeting function for their $4 billion+ portfolio of companies. Mr. Sawin earned his CPA while working for Deloitte & Touche. He holds a B.S. from Bentley University and a M.B.A from Babson College. Mr. Sawin was an adjunct professor of business at Boston University for ten years.

Medley Global Advisors LLC is the leading macro policy intelligence service for the world's top hedge funds, investment banks and asset managers.